BALTIMORE, May 17 .- The spring meeting of the Jockey Club will begin at Pimlico on Thursday, and the indications are that it will be more than ordinarily attractive. There will be five races on each of the four days, without a heat race or steeple chase. There are now about 200 horses at the track, including most of those which took part in the Ivy City contests, and more are expected to-mor-row. The track is in splendid condition, and it is expected the fields will be large in most of the events. The stakes will include the annual Homebred Rancoas handicapa, Vernal sweepstakes, Clabaugh memorial, Chesapeake, Peyton handicap, Patapsco and Preakness stakes. For all of them large entries have been made, and a successful meeting is anticipated.

COLD-BLOODED ASSASSINATION.

A Mexican Kanchero Satisfies an Old Grudge by Treacherously Shooting an Officer in the Back, and the Latter's Brother-in-Law Slays the Murderer.

PIRDGRAS NEGRAS, Mex., May 17 .- A double tragedy was yesterday morning enacted in this old town. Alfonso Buerti, one of the wealthiest rancheros in this vicinity, had long entertained deadly enmity toward a Mexican Police Captain named David Montez, because the latter once arrested Buerti | City and Stockton consists of chimneys when he came to town and got drunk. Buerti claimed before the Magistrate at the time that Montez had brutally beaten him and otherwise exceeded his official powers but the Magistrate refused to order the arrest or censure of the Captain. This morning Buerti rode into the city, and, under a pretext of requiring the assistance of Captain Montez to make an arrest near his big ranch, they together left the city. They had only proceeded a few miles into the country when Buerti, firing from behind. emptied his six-expoter into Montez, killing him instantly. About half an hour afterward some Mexican cattle-herders found the body where it had fallen. When the corpse was brought to the city it caused tremendous excitement. A squad of mounted police were immediately summoned, and, under the leadership of Gonzales, a brotherin-law of Montez, they started in parsuit of Buerti, whom they overtook in a grove near the Rilleto River, ten miles from Piedras Negras. Buerti seeing resistance was useless threw up his bands and exclaimed: "I surrender, gentlemen, and claim the killing was justifiable." At this Gonzales rode up close to Buerti and drawing his pistol exclaimed: "And so is this justifiable!" At the same moment he sent two bullets crashing into the brain of Buerti. This occurred in the presence of the entire squadron of police. Buerti's body was buried on the spot, and the squadron returned to the city about o'clock this afternoon. No arrests have been made. The matter is considered honorably adjusted by the relatives of both the victims. Montez was widely known along the Rio Grade for his efficiency as an officer.
